Loneliness

Von Lin-Chan

Is there anybody out there,
To hear my cries of help?
Is there anybody out there,
To see the tears of pain?

Will there be someone to save me,
When I fall?
Will there be someone to save me,
When I break?

Does anybody really care,
When they ask 'Are you okay?'?
Does anybody really care,
When they run away?

Is there anybody out there,
To save me from myself?
Is there anybody out there,
To make me feel again?

Why can't someone be here,
To wipe away the tears?
Why can't someone be here,
To take away the pain?

Does anyone see,
The cuts on my arms?
Does anyone see,
The mask that I wear?

Is there anybody out there,
Who understands me?
Is there anybody out there,
Who would really care?

Will anybody miss me,

If I was gone?
Would anybody notice,
If I was gone?

Why,
Am I alone?
Why,
Am I like this?

Is there anybody out there,
For me to lean on?
Is there anybody out there,
To break down the wall around my heart?

Is there anybody?!
