Insane feelings

sometimes my dear
I truly hate you ever and ever you kill my heart let me drown in the deepest Dark but I can't stop loving you You play with my fear

I give many tears for you Send them in the Air hope that you can hear my prayer All my nights I dream of you doomed I lost and lonely protect the bleeding heart I know this is my part

Always ask in this endless Dark Who you are but there is only silence where you are never I get an answer it hurts its only hurts like a shark Are all the things I've done sins

Since i was born
I paid any Price now im hopeless and helpless alone You promised me so much more but my time runs away
On this point, I love just you

I wish to say you much more but I don't know the words then I take sword shield and armour that's the only way to fight again against the demons and their swords finally, i will win this game
