Kapitel 28: I be with you

Where you are
There so far
Tell me
I wanna be with you
Floating through dimensions
We can start it over
Into deeper tensions
We should stay together tending in time forever
So I wanna be embraced in brightest light holding you evermore soft and tight
So give me your hand!
Where you are
There so far
Tell me
I wanna be with you right now
Floating through wide oceans
We can start it sooner
Squatting in deepest rain happiness to gain
Forgotten memories called on my mind wished sunshine makes me blind
I can feel you close to me
I can see you´re all I need
My heart´s reaching out for ya´ heed!
So where you are
There so far
Tell me
I wanna be with you just right now
And that is all I want Togehter we´ll go new paths
We tear off this shaded world
But no one will ever tear out you of my heart!

So goodbye I say to painful pasts
Creating a friendship that ever lasts!
So hello to a new day I say and take your hand...
