Kapitel 2: Reflection

~+~Reflec:tion~+~

When I see you,
it's like looking into the mirror
And if I change
the reflection changes too.

I don't know
How could I stop it?
Does it ever go away?

But the reflection isn't a perfect copy
It will never have the same soul
In former times you had pull me down
But from now till my dead
You will never make it again

Still you continue to fool people and they believe excepting me because I know who you are only a reflection

thrown away your life
just to become an other person very breakable...

I smile
